

Internship at Atos in the department Global Siemens Alliance

Your tasks

During the internship you will broaden your knowledge of the IT market and gain insights into the global partnership between Siemens and Atos and its innovative topics. You will also get engaged e.g. in various business and process oriented activities, global fairs, events and workshops. The position has a strong exposure to the Atos Global Top Management.

Deep diving on the business aspects of ongoing joint investments in areas such as Industry 4.0, Data Analytics and Security to understand how the companies are working together and support our joint collaboration – we welcome your new ideas to create more value out of our multi-million investment fund

Support in sales enablement like prepare fairs, events or workshops, and improve the representation of our customer demonstrations

- of the jointly developed solutions within Atos Business Technology and Innovation Centers
 In marketing communications including review of presentations, creating new content and improving our internal and external
- In marketing communications including review of presentations, creating new content and improving our internal and external communication
- Assist in the creation of business status reports to the Executive Committee of Atos directly reporting to the top management of Atos
- Support additional ad-hoc activities that increase the quality and output of the Alliance team I do not want you to bring me coffee, I want you to bring me your energy and insight
- · Depending on your interest and experience and current demand within the team, the role might get adjusted and focused

Job Requirements

- You are in the last year of your Bachelor or have started Master, preferably in business studies or similar
- You are available for at least 4-5 months
- You are business fluent in English. Dutch, German or French is considered a plus
- You are well experienced in MS PowerPoint and Excel
- · You are quality orientated, able to cope with time pressure in your tasks, and to work flexible office hours occasionally
- You have great communication skills, also towards management

We are looking forward to reading your application.

Please apply for this position on our career page (reference number 239790).

More information under https://atos.net/en/about-us

